

Founded in 1793 and recently acquired by Education in Motion (EiM), the Hochalpinen Institut Ftan (HIF) is the international school in the Lower Engadine - locally anchored and globally networked. At the HIF, we see education as a journey where global horizons meet local traditions.

HIF fosters a truly student-centred culture of learning and discovery, taking full advantage of its unique and life enriching alpine location to offer a range of Swiss, Sports and International programmes which inspire students to lead full, healthy, and active outdoor lives.

Vision

The Hochalpinen Institut Ftan aspires to provide the best all-round education so each child can discover and develop their talents while preparing them to contribute to making a more sustainable society.

Mission

Through holistic education, HIF inspires its students to develop into open-minded, creative, and critical thinkers who understand that the world can be led to a better future with fairness, respect, responsibility, and a sense of community.

Values

At HIF, respect, responsibility, and open mindedness underpin our daily actions. We are committed to creating a supportive and safe environment for its students, staff, and wider community.

As a cantonally and federally recognized secondary school with boarding facilities in the Lower Engadine, we run a bilingual grammar school and the Ignite: Switzerland international education programme. In addition, together with the HIF Sports Academy, our school offers an ideal environment to accompany athletes on their sporting and academic path.

To complement our teaching staff, we are looking for a

TEACHER FOR ECONOMICS AND LAW (30/50/70%) preferably in combination with another subject

We strive to create a modern and lively school that places value on sustainable school development. To this end, we are looking for committed, cooperative and innovative teachers who are enthusiastic about pedagogical tasks.

You should have teaching experience and a relevant teaching qualification or be interested in further training in order to reach the required teaching level within a few years. You have a very good command of German and English and are confident in using both languages in a bilingual environment.

We offer an innovative and dynamic working environment with a wide range of development and training opportunities, friendly students and a motivated and enthusiastic team.
